EMPATHY EDUCATION @BBTNB

Mom is left alone with two children after her husband was lost in a terrible mining accident involving a Griever and TNT. Her oldest boy named "Hmmm" is very ill and spends most of his days playing in the backyard with imaginary friends. The youngest son, also named "Hmmm" can't even hop up on a one meter tall block.

- Mom is left unable to afford her home alone.
She needs a home with:
- At least 3 bedrooms
  - 2 stories
  - A play room for rainy days with "Hmmm"
  - A basement office that Mom can work in
  - A safe and big back yard for "Hm"
- Pictures up in the house to remind the family of dad
- A way for little "Hmmm" to get around the house avoiding one meter high blocks.
  - Lots of fresh air
- A Tree House for the kids would be EPIC!
- Anything else you think can help them
